Argentinian Bar Y Grill

Asado Bar Y Grill

Showcasing a strong identity of its own, Asado heats things up with Spanish flair. Creating a new benchmark for South American culinary offerings and taking Argentinian food to new levels, this coal-fired venue and sumptuous bar is available for your next dining experience.

Asado's extensive Argentinian wine list offers the best of the Mendoza region and Malbec varietals, with group-exclusive Argentinian imports including pours such as Humberto Canale and Ruca Malen. The wine experience at Asado recreates an evening by the fire within the vast plains of an Argentinian estancia.

Alongside the main dining area, Asado boasts a dedicated space, semi private dining to accommodate private dining groups of up to 40, a private dining space with AV for a maximum of 14, in addition to outdoor dining areas nestled within gum trees with views of the city and the Yarra River.

Gaicho Semi Private Dining

Our semi private dining area can accommodate a variety of group sizes, from as small as 8 to 40 people.

Featuring a dry aged meat cabinet and murals created by local artist Dan Wenn, soak up the essence of the Patagonian plains via the montage of gauchos riding through the rolling terrain of outback Argentina.

Separated from main dining by floor-to-ceiling wine racks, the expansive space can be transformed to create separate sections or one large function space by hanging rope curtains.

Our semi private dining still retains the atmosphere of the restaurant without the noise. Carpeted with cushioned seating rustic wooden tables.
