FRENCH VARIETALS

Grand Cru

2001 Château L'Hermitage de Matras                      St. Émilion Grand Cru                      700
A classic Bordeaux from famed winemaker Véronique Gaboriaud, this particular vintage is well-known for being full bodied and intense, with red fruits, purple plums, walnuts and toasted bread notes predominant. Aged for 20 months on new French oak barrels, the acidity has mellowed delightfully with age to be extremely palatable and ready to be savoured now. 70% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Franc.

Vin Blanc

2018 Côte du Rhône "Couzou"                      Northern Rhône                      185
An unctuous and unusual white wine from Jean-Luc Jamet of the Rhône valley. With a nose of golden-green pears, apricots, scorched orange zest and a hint of infused tea, this opens up to a palate that is full-bodied, plump and with a long finish. White stone fruits, ripe melon, pineapple make way for traces of saline with a hint of honey and white pepper on the finish. 60% Marsanne, 20% Rousanne, 20% Viognier.

Vin Rouge

2017 Côte Rôtie Les Terrasses                      Northern Rhône                      495
2018 Côte Rôtie Les Terrasses                      Northern Rhône                      465
2019 Côte Rôtie Les Terrasses                      Northern Rhône                      435
A collection of French Syrahs from Jean-Luc Jamet, Côte-Rôtie are a sumptuous demonstration of master wine maker at work. The nose intrigues with black cherries, mocha, toast and hints of black olives. A supple, silky and full-bodied palate with notes of violets and raspberries giving way to cassis, blueberry, savoury cured meats, hints of iron with heavy wood spices to round out this majestic wine. 100% Syrah.
